WATERLOO, Iowa (AP) — Karl C. von Lackum, 68, president of the Waterloo Daily Courier and Cedar Falls Daily Record, was found dead of a heart seizure Wednesday night at his home. Von Lackum was a grandson of the founder of the Courier, William H. Hartman.

WASHINGTON (AP) — John B. Adams, 58, publisher of U.S. Lady, a monthly magazine for military service wives and families, died of a heart attack Wednesday. His wife is editor of the magazine. Adams formerly was a correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System in Rio de Janeiro and Washington.

To Ask Davis to Tell Name of Informer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John Purdie, an attorney for four of the 12 persons arrested in gambling raids in Pulaski County in September, said Thursday he would ask former State Police Director Lynn A. Davis to name the confidential informant whose information led to the raids.

Purdie said he had issued subpoenas for Davis and Maj. W. C. Struebing, head of the Criminal Investigation Division of the State Police, to appear Monday in Circuit Court.

Davis refused to name his informant when questioned by the Pulaski County Grand Jury Dec. 5 and spent 24 hours in the county jail.

Prosecutor Richard B. Adkisson said Thursday he would object to the anticipated question on the grounds that "the defendants are not entitled to the name unless they can show that it is material to their defense."

The defense contends that the arrest warrants were defective because they didn't name the informant and that the defendants had a right to cross-examine the informant.

"In my opinion, these defendants are entitled to know the name of the alleged confidential informant if there was one because he is in effect the accuser in this matter," Purdie said. "If the alleged accuser is not confronted and examined on the basis of his knowledge about the case it would serve as a shield to allow anyone to make a charge through a third party and thereby escape cross-examination or facing the one he accuses."

Chinese border.
The debut of the Communists' 37mm antiaircraft gun around Khe Sanh was termed serious by one U.S. officer who said: "It's a very good weapon. We want to get them out as soon as we spot them."

Field reports say seven of the 37mm guns around Khe Sanh are believed to have been destroyed, and no planes have been lost to the new antiaircraft weapon yet. But the reports say the guns have opened fire on C130 cargo planes making supply drops and on jet fighter-bombers escorting the cargo carriers.

U.S. sources said the 37mm guns have an effective range of 8,000 to 10,000 feet and pack "a lot more punch" than the 50-caliber machine guns the North Vietnamese have been using against Khe Sanh's only supply route.

With an effective range of about 4,500 feet, the machine guns and other automatic weapons have knocked down three Marine jet bombers, two cargo planes and several helicopters. One of the cargo planes carried 49 persons; all were killed.

The 37mm guns also are a threat to U.S. fighter-bombers that have been flying an average of 200 strikes a day against the estimated 20,000 North Vietnamese troops besieging Khe Sanh.

North Vietnamese forces broke the back of the French resistance at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 after 37mm guns shot down plane after plane trying to parachute supplies to that beleaguered fortress or bombing in support of the French garrison.

The daily shelling of Khe Sanh continued on a reduced scale Thursday, with North Vietnamese gunners landing 110 rounds of artillery, rockets and mortars on the Marine base. But of possibly more significance was a 100-round barrage poured into two U.S. artillery strongpoints that support Khe Sanh from the east, the Rock Pile and Camp Carroll.

AP correspondent Edwin Q. White reported from Da Nang that the shelling was the heaviest at Camp Carroll in some time and could be the beginning of a harassment campaign against the two bases. U.S. commanders believe that before the North Vietnamese can make a serious attempt to overrun Khe Sanh, they must silence the big 175mm howitzers which back up Khe Sanh from the two posts to the east.

A new offensive thrust by the U.S. 9th infantry division to secure the main food line from the Mekong Delta to Saigon was announced by the U.S. Command, the sixth allied operation disclosed in the last two days.

Named "Operation Peoples Road," and centered 40 miles southwest of Saigon, its goal is to secure the frequently cut National Route 4. The operation was launched March 1, but the U.S. Command said there has been only light contact so far, with 19 Viet Cong killed and one U. S. Soldier wounded.

Grave-digging Probe Data to Governor
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Police Director Ralph Scott says he has given Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and Jefferson County Prosecutor Joe Holmes copies of the State Police report on an investigation of the unearthing of three human skeletons at Cummins Prison Farm.

The grave-diggings on Jan. 29 touched off international publicity about the state's prison system with some persons charging the skeletons were those of murdered inmates.

A pathological report, however, indicated that the three had not died violently.

Maj. Bill Struebing of the Criminal Investigation Division led the investigation and at its start said he believed the skeletons had been removed from a pauper graveyard at the prison. Scott, who became director late last month, said he wrote the report himself because he "wanted to be personally informed of the scope and thoroughness of it."

Scott said he had no intention of making the details in the report public and that if it was done, it would have to come from either the governor or Holmes.

Resolution for Mills Irks Some

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — North Little Rock Mayor William Laman and the Central Arkansas Labor Council notified Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., Thursday that they did not agree with a resolution adopted earlier in the week by about 80 businessmen.

The resolution called for cuts in programs except defense spending and projects under contract.

Laman said the resolution does not reflect the opinions of the other residents of Pulaski County.

"The majority of us are well pleased with your able and capable leadership and in North Little Rock we would not presume to question your ability to know what's the right thing to do nor your courage to do it," Laman told Mills in a telegram.

Laman said the curtailment of federal assisted programs would be "disastrous to our cities in Arkansas."

Lloyd Ringgold, president of the Labor Council, said the group had adopted a resolution urging Mills to support "essential domestic programs."

"We believe top priority should be given to the programs that meet the needs of those who are less fortunate," the council said in its resolution. "This is not the time to retreat, but this is the time to move forward with progressive programs."

"Congressman Mills represents not just the Cadillac crowd but also is responsible to the majority of people in his district who are in the low and moderate income brackets," the resolution said.

Escaped Killer Caught After Raping Woman

Associated Press Writer BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Winston Moseley, convicted murderer of Catherine "Kitty" Genovese, was recaptured Thursday, three days after his escape from a prison guard set off a wave of fear in the Buffalo area.

Moseley was sentenced to life imprisonment for the fatal stabbing of Miss Genovese, a Queens barmaid, in 1964. Police said 38 persons saw that attack or heard her screams but refused to help her or call police.

The 33-year-old Moseley surrendered quietly Thursday after a 58-minute armed confrontation with an FBI agent in the suburban Grand Island apartment where Moseley held a woman and her infant daughter hostage.

The capture of the slightly built fugitive climaxed a day in which he also surprised a couple in the vacant house here he was using as a hideout.

Police said he raped the wife and bound her husband, then stole the man's clothing and automobile and a loaded pistol he found.

Moseley made his way to Grand Island, five miles north of Buffalo in the Niagara River, and entered the garden apartment of Mrs. E. James Patmos, who was alone with her 5-month-old daughter, Amy.

A neighbor, Mrs. Frank G. Costanzo, arrived at the home minutes later and also was taken captive.

Moseley permitted Mrs. Costanzo to go to a nearby church, where she and Mrs. Patmos were scheduled to work in a nursery. He warned her to return with a car within 20 minutes.

Mrs. Costanzo went to the church and telephoned her husband, who then called the FBI.

About 100 federal, state, county and Buffalo police rushed to the scene and surrounded the apartment complex.

Neil J. Welch, special agent in charge of the Buffalo FBI office, telephoned Moseley, who let him in the apartment.

As the agent and the fugitive carried on their hour-long conversation in the living room, Mrs. Patmos and the infant were rescued by police through a window in a rear bedroom.

"I sat there and talked with him with his gun on me," Welch later told reporters. "I had a gun on him, too, but in my overcoat pocket."

"The conversation centered on allaying his fears," the agent added. "We talked about his life in prison and discussed the advisability of doing anything foolish."

Had the police decided to storm the apartment, Moseley would have shot it out with them, Welch said he was told.

Eastern Arkansas Hit by Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A snowstorm lashed Eastern Arkansas today, severing long-distance telephone communications in some areas, creating hazardous driving conditions and forcing many schools to dismiss classes.

By midmorning, up to 14 inches of snow was reported in the Memphis-West Memphis area and snow was falling at the rate of an inch an hour.

The major snowfall appeared to be east of a line from Blytheville to Brinkley to Dumas to Warren to Arkansas City to Monroe, La.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said, however, the heavy snow was likely to spread northwestward into portions of Central Arkansas and additional portions of Northeast Arkansas later today.

The snow is a wet-packing snow and accumulations ranged upward from five to 12 inches. Additional accumulations of four inches or more were expected today.

Dumas was one of the hardest hit by the snow. The city reported 12 inches on the ground, and the weight of the snow felled small trees and power lines. At least two carports and many aluminum awnings collapsed.

Osceola reported 10 inches and minor damage to power lines was reported.

Could and Winchester (Drew County) had 10 inches on the ground this morning. Warren has eight, Blytheville four, Forrest City eight, Helena eight, DeWitt 5 and Arkansas City seven.

State Police advised that hazardous driving conditions exist from West Memphis to Caruthersville, Mo., and all highways east of Memphis to Nashville, Tenn., are closed.

Highways in and around Helena are closed over the airport at Memphis is closed. Scores of cars and trucks slid into ditches throughout eastern sections. The Memphis-Arkansas bridge was closed this morning by several minor traffic accidents.

A strong trough of low pressure is the main cause of the lingering snow in Arkansas. This trough was still to the west of the Arkansas this morning.

HELEN HELP US!

LET SLEEPING FAMILY SKELETONS LIE

Dear Helen: My daughter believes she is my sister. I want to set the record straight but our mother—correction, my mother, her grandmother—says "No!" The need is great.

Here's the story. At 13, I got pregnant. The boy never knew. I was whisked out of town, supposedly to attend private school. The strange coincidence was that my mother expected her third baby within a week of my time. She planned it so that she was "visiting her folks" when her child arrived. My baby, only a few days older, became the other "twin." There was a legal adoption, quietly done. No one ever suspected.

I am now 30, married, with two children. My husband knows part of the story, though he thinks the baby was "adopted out."

My 16-year-old daughter-sister has always listened to me as her "older sister." But now she has met a man I despise. I can't get through to her that he's no good and will only bring her trouble. Perhaps if I tell her that I am her mother, I can warn her. My experience might shock her into some sense.

MOTHER WITHOUT NAME

Dear Mother: Have you considered that the truth might shock your sister-daughter into running off with the first man who offers escape?

You can help her far more as an understanding older sister than as a foolish, frightened child-mother, which is how you might appear to her.

Let sleeping family skeletons lie and don't feel guilty when you say "our" mother. Legally, she is. Moreover, this is the way you've wanted it for 16 years. — H.

Dear Helen: Butt out, baby!

Actor's Wife Wins a Divorce But He Gains Partial Custody Rights

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Dyan Cannon has won an uncontested divorce from Cary Grant but the suave 64-year-old film star has been given partial custody of their only child, 2-year-old Jennifer.

Superior Court Judge Robert A. Wenke dissolved the 32-month marriage Thursday while Grant was in St. John's Hospital in New York City recovering from injuries suffered in a March 12 auto accident.

Miss Cannon, 30, the actor's fourth wife, had sought in the two-day trial to prevent Grant from being able to see his daughter except during daylight hours. She asked $5,470 a month alimony and child support.

Judge Wenke gave Grant custody of Jennifer 60 days a year and every other holiday and birthday. He ordered Grant to pay $1,500 monthly plus "extraordinary medical and dental bills" and $500 a month to a governess or nurse if one is hired by Miss Cannon.

Miss Cannon had testified Grant was a weekly user of the hallucinatory drug LSD for ten years.

She said he had frequent "yelling and screaming fits" and had beaten her. On one night, Miss Cannon testified, Grant "threw me down over his body and hit me on all parts of my body."

One time, Miss Cannon said, Grant laughed as he beat her.

A friend of Miss Cannon's, Mary Gries, wife of film director Tom Gries, testified that Grant once told her: "This girl Dyan is heading for a nervous breakdown and I hope she has it. That's the only way I can make her into the wife I want."

She said Grant commented that he planned to use "psychotherapy and LSD" to transform his wife into a new image.

Adeline Gould, a former agent for Miss Cannon, said that Grant became enraged and refused to allow his wife to leave their home to attend a dinner party.

Mrs. Gould said he heard Grant scream into the telephone: "Addie, stay out of my divorce. I'm going to break this girl, I'm going to break her like a pony."

Two psychiatrists who examined Grant last fall testified that there was no evidence of erratic behavior in the film star and that there was no evidence of damage from the use of LSD.

"The evidence shows that Mr. Grant is no longer using LSD," the judge said, "and he appears to be a loving and devoted father. He should be entitled to adequate visitation rights. If his conduct is not what it should be then the plaintiff may return to court."

Grant made no statement on the decision from the hospital where he is under treatment for two fractured ribs and face cuts.

No Comfort to Mrs. Comfort

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP) — In a half-hour, Patricia Comfort's telephone rang 15 times.

"Sorry, you have the wrong number," Mrs. Comfort said 15 times Tuesday. Then she found she could get 2,985 more wrong calls—that many recreation bulletins carrying her phone number by mistake have been mailed in Canoga Park.

"I'm thinking of changing my name to discomfort," said Mrs. Comfort.

Expert bidding frequently resembles a nightmare with every player trying to guess what his opponents are up to.

This hand went along tamely enough until East's jump to three spades. South had a sound opening heart bid. West had some sort of a takeout double and North had a book redouble.

East's jump to three spades was based on a stout heart and the fact that his opponents were vulnerable and he wasn't. This crowded South into four diamonds. West entered into the spirit of the matter and went to four spades whereupon North jumped to six hearts.

North had no idea whether the contract would be a cinch or impossible. He really sort of hoped that East or West would sacrifice at six spades but East had bid more than enough and West decided to hope for two club tricks.

West did open with two rounds of clubs. South ruffed the second and proceeded to draw trumps just as anyone would.

If trumps had broken 2-2

South would have had no further problem but West showed out on the second lead. South played a third round anyway and was careful to win in his own hand.

South counted his tricks. He had four trump tricks in and could make his last trump and dummy's last trump separately for two more. The ace of spades would be his seventh trick and five diamond tricks were needed to bring home the slam. If diamonds would break nicely he could just run the five tricks off but the bidding indicated that diamonds were not going to behave properly. Therefore, South decided to play

West for the jack of diamonds. He led his 10 spot and let it ride. Then he took dummy's king, picked up the suit and made his slam.

Can Houston and Elvin Hayes do it again? Can the unbeaten Cougars and the Big E once more defeat UCLA and Lew Alcindor?

The pros and cons will be settled tonight in the epic rematch of the country's top two college basketball teams at the Sports Arena in Los Angeles.

The top-ranked Cougars, with a 32-game winning streak, battle second-ranked UCLA, beaten only by Houston, in the semifinals of the NCAA tournament. The winner is expected to go on and win the national collegiate championship Saturday night against either North Carolina or Ohio State.

North Carolina and Ohio State are paired in the first game of the NCAA semifinal doubleheader starting at 10 p.m., EST. The eagerly awaited Houston-UCLA game is scheduled for midnight.

Kansas and Dayton started off the climactic final weekend of the collegiate season by winning the semifinals of the National Invitation Tourney in New York Thursday night.

Dayton made it 13 in a row by erasing a nine-point deficit to beat Notre Dame 76-74 in overtime. Don May's 32 points gained the Flyers a 68-68 regulation tie and Bob Hooper's two free throws with 15 seconds left in the OT provided the winning margin.

Kansas whipped St. Peter's 58-46 on the slick ball handling and floor generalship of Jo Jo White. The Jayhawks completed stopped the Peacocks' vaunted fast break which had overwhelmed Duke 100-71 on Monday.

Kansas and Dayton play in the NIT final Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., EST. Notre Dame and St. Peter's meet in a consolation for third place at noon.

Although Houston snapped UCLA's 47-game winning streak Jan. 20 in the Astrodome at Houston 71-69, the Bruins are favored this time. Hayes, who got 39 points in the Astrodome, is expected to turn in another great performance, but UCLA's over-all team balance is regarded as the difference. In addition Alcindor has recovered from the eye trouble which hampered him in January.

As Guy Lewis, Houston coach, put it: "We have to beat UCLA to win the national championship and that's the way it should be."

North Carolina, fourth-ranked in the final Associated Press poll of the season, is favored over unranked Ohio State in the virtually overlooked other NCAA semifinal.

Killebrew Takes Over for Twins

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Killer murdered Minnesota's exhibition baseball losing streak.

Harmon "Killer" Killebrew took personal charge of ending the seven-game string of losses Thursday when he hammered two home runs and led Minnesota to a 7-6 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Killebrew's second shot broke a 6-6 tie in the bottom of the eighth inning as the Twins won their third game in 12 spring starts, Los Angeles is 5-7.

In other games, St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 4-0, Atlanta shut out Philadelphia 7-0, Detroit stopped Cincinnati 3-0, Oakland edged the Chicago White Sox 5-4 and Washington nipped the New York Mets 2-1.

Also Houston hammered Boston 11-1, the New York Yankees edged the Mexico City Tigers 5-4, San Francisco battered Cleveland 14-3 and the Chicago Cubs blanked California 1-0.

Killebrew, who tied Carl Yastrzemski for the American League lead in homers last year with 44, cracked a three-run homer in the first inning, and then won it with his second shot in the eighth.

Tony Oliva had an inside-the-park homer for the Twins and Zolo Versalles, traded by Minnesota to Los Angeles during the winter, homered for the Dodgers.

Orlando Cepeda, the National League's Most Valuable Player last season, had another big day for the Cardinals. The big first baseman hammered a home run and a double against Pittsburgh and lifted his spring average to .400 on 12 hits in 30 at bats.

Jim Bunning took most of the punishment as the Cards won their 10th game in 12 spring starts. Cepeda in his last six at bats has had a single, two doubles and two homers.

The Washington Senators maintained a perfect record against National League opponents, making the Mets their fifth straight victims. Sam Bowens homered, for Washington and Ron Swoboda connected, for New York.

Atlanta's Dick Kelley threw five perfect innings as the Braves battered Philadelphia. Two of the three Phillie hits came in the ninth inning against reliever Clay Carroll. Sonny Jackson drove in three runs with a pair of singles for the Braves.

Andy Kosco cracked a three-run homer that brought New York from behind in the eighth inning and propelled the Yankees to their victory over the Mexico City Tigers.

The Cubs pushed across an unearned run in the fifth inning and shutout pitching by Rich Nye and Gary Ross protected it for the victory over California. Nye allowed just four hits in six innings and Ross gave two in the final three innings.

Juan Marichal worked seven innings and contributed a double to an eight-run San Francisco rally in the fourth inning as the Giants belted the Indians. Marichal allowed six hits—one a homer by Lee Maye.

Jim Wynn, Hector Torres, and Ivan Murrell cracked home runs leading a 16-hit Houston attack that carried the Astros past Boston. It was Houston's sixth straight victory.

Danny Cater tagged two home runs and Sal Bando hit his seventh of the spring as Oakland dropped the White Sox. Ramon Webster drove in the Athletics' tying run in the seventh and the winner in the ninth.

Earl Wilson, Mike Marshall and Les Cain combined on a three-hitter as Detroit shut out Cincinnati. Wilson, working the first six innings, allowed just two hits. Norm Cash drove in two Tiger runs with an eighth-inning single.

Shaw Happy With Lead at Pensacola

By RON SPEER

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Affable Tom Shaw has a ready explanation for the jubilant antics on the golf course that make him a likeable rarity among the pro tour's deadpan characters.

"I'm happy just to be alive," said Shaw, who was in a jarring freeway crash in California two years ago and suffered a broken back.

The 26-year-old teaching pro at a course in Golf, Ill., also was elated over his opening round in the Pensacola Open Tournament, a 63 which gave him a two-stroke lead going into today's renewal of the battle for the $16,000 winner's check.

Shaw started off with three straight birdies, chipped in from 20 feet for another, and bettered par on nine holes on the flat, 66,380 yard course which has a par of 72.

Shaw's score matched the best round turned in on the tour this year, but it was two strokes off the Pensacola Open record set by defending champion Gay Brewer with a 61 a year ago.

Brewer was tied for 75th as 92 players broke par. Dave Stockton, who has widened his stance "because I was falling off balance," and chunky Bob Murphy turned in 65s to share the runner-up slot behind Shaw.

Deadlocked at 66 were Ray Bots, Bobby Cole, Tony Jacklin, DeWitt Weaver, Rod Funseth, Dave Marr and George Archer. Gary Player opened with a 67, and Doug Sanders—still not making his usual spring surge—shot a 71.

Bruins Rout Black Hawks Move to 2nd

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chicago Black Hawks did almost as much damage to themselves accidentally as the Boston Bruins inflicted on them purposely.

The Bruins routed the Black Hawks 8-0 Thursday and moved back into a tie for second place in the National Hockey League's East Division with the New York York. In the only other NHL game played, Toronto ripped Detroit 5-2.

The first of two goals by Eddie Shack had given the Bruins a 1-0 first period edge when the Hawks ran into trouble. First, Bobby Hull was struck by a teammate's stick and suffered a cut requiring eight stitches around the nose.

Then, in the opening minute of the second period, goalie Jack Norris stopped a shot by Ed Westfall only to have a Chicago defenseman sweep the puck into the Black Hawks' net.

That started a three-goal splurge with ex-Hawks Phil Esposito and Fred Stanfield quickly upping the Bruins' margin to 4-0. John McKenzie and Ken Hodges, two other ex-Hawks, Shack and Tommy Williams completed the rout.

The victory moved Boston back into a second place tie with New York, three points ahead of the four-place Hawks. New York has five games to play—one more than either Boston or Chicago.

Paul Henderson and Norm Ullman, traded to Toronto by Detroit three weeks ago, stung their ex-mates as the Maple Leafs beat the Red Wings for the second time since the big trade.

Henderson scored the winner in the third period when he converted Ullman's pass. It was Henderson's 17th goal of the season and fourth for Toronto.

Ullman had his 35th earlier—fifth since the trade—and Gary Unger, who moved to Detroit in the deal, had a goal and assist for the Wings.

has not lived up to his early promise at first base.

Second and third are up for grabs. Al Wels, a handyman who came with Agee in the deal with the White Sox, could wind up at second. Rookies Dave Boswell, Bob Heise and Kevin Collins are trying to impress the boss, Dick Kenworthy, bought conditionally from the White Sox, is getting a shot at third base. Others are veteran Jerry Bucher or Ed Charles, who is not even on the roster.

J. C. Martin, also obtained from the White Sox looks like the new No. 1 catcher. He bats left-handed and probably will platoon with Jerry Grote.

Jerry Koosman and Nolan Ryan, the strikeout phenom of the minors who hurt his elbow last summer, look like the best of the young crop.

Hodges Job Difficult to Say Least

By JACK HAND

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Gil Hodges, everybody's nice guy, faces a monumental task in leading the New York Mets out of the National League cellar.

A Met original who had been away from the club since May 22, 1963 when he took over as manager at Washington, Hodges came home last Oct. 11 in a deal that sent a bundle of cash and a rookie pitcher to Washington.

Everything is strange to Gil. He hadn't even seen the Mets on television since '63. He knew he had a nucleus of Tom Seaver, Bud Harrelson and Ron Swoboda but most of the rest are strangers.

The deal that brought center-fielder Tommie Agee to the Mets was inspired by Hodges who had been impressed by Agee's performance with the Chicago White Sox. Agee, only 25, fits into Hodges' long range plans.

"We do expect to show improvement this year. That doesn't necessarily mean that we would have to move out of 10th place. We should be a better club than last year," Hodges said.

The Mets have finished last in five of the six years of their existence, emerging into ninth place in 1966 under Wes Westrum.

A shortage of experienced pitching, holes at second base and third base and lack of power are the most important deficiencies.

The outfield appears to be the strongest area with Agee anchored in center, flanked by Swoboda in right and Cleon Jones in left.

Jones, a Mobile, Ala., school-boy buddy of Agee's is expected to perk up after his 1967 slump to .246. Swoboda, a potentially dangerous home run hitter—and sometimes just as dangerous in the outfield—arrived last year with a .281 mark. Art Shamsky, ex-Cincinnati Red, and Amos Otis, another Mobile lad, are among the army battling for the spare jobs.

Harrelson, at 145 pounds, convinced the Mets he could hit enough (.254) to hold down a regular shortstop job with his sparkling fielding last season.

The NCAA championship tournament semifinals brought the big rematch to the Los Angeles Sports Arena where North Carolina meets Ohio State in the opener.

"I think we'll have a higher scoring game than the first time we met," declared Coach Guy Lewis of Houston. "I don't think 71 points will win this one. The tempo will be faster and the shooting should be better."

Houston edged UCLA 71-69 in the Astrodome on Jan. 20 and went on to an undefeated season while the loss proved the only blemish on the Bruins' record.

Odds makers this time favor UCLA by 7½ points and Coach John Wooden said Thursday:

"We've been hoping for the opportunity to play them again. There is a basis of doubt in my mind that they are the better team based on that one game and the circumstances surrounding it."

He added, "It is unlikely for two teams as defensively sound and so capable on the boards to have a high scoring game."

In addition to matching teams rated No. 1 and No. 2 nationally, the game continues the duel between All-Americans Elvin Hayes of Houston and Lew Alcindor of UCLA.

Hayes scored 39 points in Houston where 7-foot-1½ inch Alcindor tallied 15 while still suffering effects of an eye injury.

A year ago in the NCAA semifinals, UCLA whipped Houston and went on to win the title with Alcindor voted the tournament's outstanding player.

Houston has averaged 99.1 points in posting its 31-0 mark while UCLA stands 93.7 and 27-1.

Wilt, Bing Set Records in the NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain established three records and Detroit's Dave Bing became the league's scoring leader, National Basketball Association figures disclosed today.

The 7-foot-1 Chamberlain became the first center ever to win play-making honors with 702 assists, most ever by a pivot man. He also extended his string of most consecutive games with no disqualification on personal fouls to 706 and ran his all-time career scoring total to 25,434 points.

Chamberlain's assists helped the 76ers set a team record in that category with 2,197.

The 6-3 Bing, in his second season in the NBA, took scoring honors with 2,142 points. Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson had the best average per game, 29.2 points to Bing's 27.1, but missed 17 games with injuries and finished sixth in the over-all scoring race.

The only other player to surpass 2,000 points was Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, who had 2,002. Chamberlain was third with 1,992, one point ahead of Baltimore rookie Earl Monroe.

Chamberlain also was the league's top marksman with a 59.5 per cent average and the best rebounder with 1,952, or 23.8 per game. Robertson paced the foul shooters 87.3 per cent.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Houston and UCLA battle tonight in college basketball's game of the year where one coach expects a high scoring showdown and the other looks for a defensive struggle.

Sees Unity Among Tennis Tournaments

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association predicted today that nations will reach a peace on open tournaments but that the Davis Cup will remain amateur.

"I feel certain all our differences will be resolved at the meeting later this month," said Robert Kelleher of Los Angeles.

"The four major tennis playing countries—France, Great Britain, Australia and ourselves—have come to an agreement. I think the rules will be changed so that each nation will have autonomy on whether or not it wants to hold open tournaments—and how many—on amateur rules and other matters."

"This would make it possible for England to stage Wimbledon as an open tournament as planned and for other countries to send representatives without facing suspension."

Britain already is committed to an open Wimbledon, regardless of the action of the International Lawn Tennis Federation, which meets in an extraordinary session in Paris March 30 to review the open question.

The United States, Australia and France have voted in favor of national autonomy on the matter. However, they want to work within the framework of the ILTF.

Wilt Chamberlain, who usually comes through as a giant exclamation point in Philadelphia victories, was a huge question mark as the 76ers prepared to open defense of their National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The 7-foot-1 center, who led the NBA in rebounds and assists and finished third in scoring, was in pain at practice Thursday and was first thought to have broken the big toe on his right foot in Wednesday night's regular season finale against Baltimore.

But X-rays showed no break and the NBA's all-time leading scorer was expected to start against the third-place New York Knicks, possibly with the help of a pain-killing injection.

The Knicks and the San Francisco Warriors are the underdogs in tonight's first two playoff games.

The Knicks and Eastern champion 76ers go at it in Convention Hall, one of two courts the vagabond Philadelphians will call home until their wind-damaged Spectrum is ready. Injury-riddled San Francisco, which fell to third after 6-11 Nate Thurmond broke a bone in his foot, takes on the Western champion Hawks in St. Louis.

The series between the second and fourth-place finishers get under way Sunday in Boston and Los Angeles. The Celtics face the Detroit Pistons in a nationally televised afternoon contest while the Lakers oppose the Chicago Bulls in a night game.

All playoff series are best-of-seven.

Favorable Turn Should Add Luster

Favorable Turn will try to add luster to an already successful Florida campaign; Cleveland Foot will seek his fifth straight stakes victory, and Tobin Bronze will return to the grass.

What develops for these three thoroughbreds should make the racing headlines Saturday.

Favorable Turn, the winter handicap star in Florida, heads a field of nine named for the 1½-mile, $126,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap.

Cleveland Foot, who won a stakes in his juvenile finale and then scored in three straight in his only starts as a 3-year-old, has been assigned top weight of 124 pounds for the seven-furlong, $25,000-added Bay Shore at Aqueduct.

Tobin Bronze, the 6-year-old American-owned champion from Australia, is slated to contest the $50,000-added San Luis Rey Handicap over 1½ miles on the grass at Santa Anita after two dismal performances in stakes on the dirt.

"We've been hoping for the opportunity to play them again. There is a basis of doubt in my mind that they are the better team based on that one game and the circumstances surrounding it."

He added, "It is unlikely for two teams as defensively sound and so capable on the boards to have a high scoring game."

In addition to matching teams rated No. 1 and No. 2 nationally, the game continues the duel between All-Americans Elvin Hayes of Houston and Lew Alcindor of UCLA.

Hayes scored 39 points in Houston where 7-foot-1½ inch Alcindor tallied 15 while still suffering effects of an eye injury.

A year ago in the NCAA semifinals, UCLA whipped Houston and went on to win the title with Alcindor voted the tournament's outstanding player.

Houston has averaged 99.1 points in posting its 31-0 mark while UCLA stands 93.7 and 27-1.

Wilt, Bing Set Records in the NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain established three records and Detroit's Dave Bing became the league's scoring leader, National Basketball Association figures disclosed today.

The 7-foot-1 Chamberlain became the first center ever to win play-making honors with 702 assists, most ever by a pivot man. He also extended his string of most consecutive games with no disqualification on personal fouls to 706 and ran his all-time career scoring total to 25,434 points.

Chamberlain's assists helped the 76ers set a team record in that category with 2,197.

The 6-3 Bing, in his second season in the NBA, took scoring honors with 2,142 points. Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson had the best average per game, 29.2 points to Bing's 27.1, but missed 17 games with injuries and finished sixth in the over-all scoring race.

The only other player to surpass 2,000 points was Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, who had 2,002. Chamberlain was third with 1,992, one point ahead of Baltimore rookie Earl Monroe.

Chamberlain also was the league's top marksman with a 59.5 per cent average and the best rebounder with 1,952, or 23.8 per game. Robertson paced the foul shooters 87.3 per cent.

Sees Unity Among Tennis Tournaments

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association predicted today that nations will reach a peace on open tournaments but that the Davis Cup will remain amateur.

"I feel certain all our differences will be resolved at the meeting later this month," said Robert Kelleher of Los Angeles.

"The four major tennis playing countries—France, Great Britain, Australia and ourselves

Discontent With Mills Is Evident

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A resolution adopted Tuesday by a group of influential businessmen and intended to help Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., appeared Wednesday to show discontent among Mills' constituents in his handling of fiscal matters.

The resolution, which praised Mills for shelving President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent surtax in his House Ways and Means Committee until federal reduction is made in domestic spending, was attacked as a political power move for the few.

Raymond Rebsamen, a 1968 Democratic gubernatorial candidate and prominent Little Rock businessman wrote Mills: "Let me suggest that you continue to run your own affairs and not be taken over by self-appointed, would-be political bosses from the Little Rock area of your large congressional district."

Earl F. Yeargan, business representative of Local 200 of the Hospital, Hotel, Motel and Restaurant Workers, angrily charged, "An unholy alliance of kingmakers has offered its support... in order to strengthen its own control over Arkansas."

"The alliance is led by W.F. Rector and Everett Tucker (both Little Rock businessmen), Yeargan said in a prepared statement. "They have taken advantage of many well-meaning businessmen who were called to a meeting Tuesday with no knowledge of what was being planned for them."

Rector, president of the Fifth gas River development, Urban Renewal, aid to education — while expensive — all lead to a greater and more profitable nation," he said.

More reserved in his condemnation of the resolution was J. Bill Becker, president of the Arkansas State AFL-CIO, which endorsed Mills in 1966. "If we support the leadership of Rector and Tucker, we'll be moving fast toward the last century," Becker said. "These were the affluent and we've got to concern ourselves with the problems of the poor and the average man in the street."

Dr. W. H. Townsend of Little Rock, chairman of the Arkansas Council on Counties and Community Affairs, said his members were "depressed and revolted by the thought that the affluent can care so little for the poor" as to make the recommendations carried in the businessmen's resolution.

William "Sonny" Walker, director of the Economic Opportunity Agency of Pulaski County, said he thought "it is quite significant that the meeting did not reflect the thinking of every body."

"As far as I know there was no representative of labor, the working people; as far as I know there was no black man there, there was no woman there, there was no poor man there," Walker said.

Rebsamen said he thought it was "especially bad" that representatives of other areas of Mills' district were not at the meeting, which he termed "pointless."

He said the cause of the U.S. gold shortage, monetary problems and "other maladjustedness in our economy" was the Vietnam war, and asked, "what can we gain from the Vietnam debacle?"

"Interstate highways, Arkansas River development, Urban Renewal, aid to education — while expensive — all lead to a greater and more profitable nation," he said.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—Have any U.S. presidents ever been impeached?
A—The only case of attempted impeachment was that of Andrew Johnson, the 17th president, in 1868. Verdict was guilty by a vote of 35-19 but the Chief Justice directed a verdict of acquittal since it was one short of the necessary two-thirds.

THE ADEQUATE LORD

Now as never before the world needs the Holy light that flows from the Sacred pages of His Holy Bible. The adequate Lord and the needy world must be brought together. Ambassadors of God must be summoned and transportation chartered to bear the gospel message to the "four corners of the earth." The candles we light must illuminate the Holy Word, and churches everywhere must keep preaching that Christ is what the world must have for its health and salvation. Like Paul and Barnabas may we be ministers of His Word. The whole world needs the light from the candles, the influence of the cross, and the inspiration of the Bible.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
He will be immortal wholiveth till he be stoned by one without fault, -Goethe said it.

AMERICAN LEGION POST AND AUXILIARY OBSERVE BIRTHDAY
Nelson Hill Post No. 427 and the Auxiliary held their annual birthday meeting in the Youth Center March 15, 1968, and had as special guests: Mrs. Alma Drew, Director of the Welfare Department, Mrs. Mildred Casin, Mrs. Alice Arnett, and Mrs. Mary High. Mrs. Drew was speaker for the occasion. She gave points on the rate of payments to AFDC families: mother and one child, $65.00 per month; $10.00 per month added for each additional child to a total of $125.00 for mother and seven children; no additional money assistance for the eighth child and all additional children in the family. .95 hundred AFDC families receiving assistance now representing more than 30,000 children. .41 percent of states' total population of children 18 and under now receiving AFDC payments. Arkansas' average monthly payment to AFDC recipient $19.50, only four states with lower payments: Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, and South Carolina. 10 percent of states' funds paid the aged, blind, and disabled, although the AFDC represent almost 50 percent of the department's total cash recipients. She also stated that our present assistance level for AFDC families is hardly enough to ward off sheer starvation and is creating family hardships that can only stimulate conditions for future welfare problems. She emphasized that a concerned society must extend a helping hand.

Mrs. Thelma Williamson, a Gold Star mother and recent new member of the Auxiliary played a tape of a ceremony where the department presented her citations tape of a ceremony where the war department presented her citations and medals for the services of her son who was killed in Vietnam (Robert Muldrew). Mrs. Clara Muldrew, assisted by Mrs. Martha Thompson and Mrs. Lula Mae Gamble, served the group a plate lunch consisting of fried chicken and all the trimmings.

LOCAL RESIDENT HONORED ON 102nd BIRTHDAY
Mr. Henry Criner was honored with a birthday party on his 102nd birthday by his daughter, Mrs. Walter Joe on Thursday March 21, 1968.
Twenty-five persons were present for the occasion. Members of the immediate family present were: another daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Thomas of Little Rock, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Criner, and Jimmy Lee Lindsey.

There Has to Be an Issue Dividing
the Two Parties

Nelson Rockefeller's decision Thursday not to enter the Republican presidential campaign will go a long way toward establishing that essential difference between the two parties which makes for a good election. On occasion, as in 1924, the two-party system has failed to produce much difference between the candidates or what they represent. In 1924 Coolidge and Davis were both conservatives, encouraging LaFollette to make a third-party bid—and producing a rather indifferent election year. There was too much of the free-sending tradition around Rockefeller to have made the New York governor a suitable opponent for Lyndon Johnson. It would have been a 1924 in reverse—two liberals and no one representing the conservative view.

Rockefeller had gotten the word from the GOP convention twice before—when Nixon outpolled him in 1960, and Goldwater in 1964. And the New Yorker had the candor and courage to state publicly that nothing in the Republican camp today indicated any change in the party's earlier preference for Nixon.

So it looks like a campaign between Nixon and Johnson with a sharp and clear issue on domestic spending policy dividing the two parties. Which is as it ought to be, if the people are to have something to vote on.

Receivership for Insurance Firm Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A petition for receivership, charging that the National Fraternity Life Insurance Co. of Fort Smith had a capital "impairment" or insolvency in the amount of $134,438, has been filed in circuit court in Sebastian County.

State Insurance Commissioner Allan Horne said Thursday his office had filed the petition. Horne said the firm's license was revoked in January because it failed to remove the impairment within the 60 days required by the insurance code. Circuit Judge Paul Wolfe is tentatively scheduled to hear the petition March 27.

Horne said his department would attempt to obtain reinsurance of the $1 million worth of ordinary life insurance the firm has in force so that no loss in money or insurance protection would be sustained by the policyholders.

Little Rock Police said Johnson's arrest was the 41st they had made in connection with betting on horse races since the 1968 Oaklawn Park race meeting which began Feb. 9.

Nixon's Stock Politically Is Soaring

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's decision not to run for the Republican presidential nomination sent Richard M. Nixon's political stock skyrocketing today and stirred heavy speculation about the possibility of a movement to draft Rockefeller.

The governor left himself open to such a development. Nixon said, "I do not believe at this point that a draft is likely unless I make some rather serious mistake."

The former vice president, however, said he saw the possibility of this action. "I would suggest that at the convention, in the event the favorite sons do not make decisions before the convention, a draft could occur," Nixon said.

In California, Gov. Ronald Reagan said in a news conference he believes the delegates to the Republican national convention will choose the nominee—not the primaries. "Right now it would seem a draft could decide what would happen," he added.

Another Western governor, Paul Laxalt of Nevada, commented, "A big, unanswered question now will be whether or not this will stop the draft movement."

Rockefeller, in these words, said he is still available as the GOP candidate:

"I have said that I stood ready to answer to any true and meaningful call from the Republican party to serve it and the nation. I still so stand. I would be derelict or uncandid were I to say otherwise."

"I expect no such call. And I shall do nothing in the future, by word or deed, to encourage such a call."

Rockefeller advanced four reasons for his decision not to try again for the Republican nomination—and he pointed to Nixon's long lead as the first of them. The governor said:

"Quite frankly, I find it clear at this time that a considerable majority of the party's leaders want the candidacy of former Vice President Richard Nixon."

In a time of deep cleavages of American opinion over the problems confronting the nation, Rockefeller said, "I do not believe that the way to compose perilous national division is to create more partisan division."

There Are Two Things You Just Can't Hurry - a Wife and the Army

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — You can't hurry a wife or an army. It's foolish to try to.

Any male veteran of either matrimony or the military service soon learns the unspoken philosophy of both institutions is the same: "Hurry up and wait."

In the Army you receive rush orders to be prepared to move out at a moment's notice. You get ready as fast as you can. Then you just sit there and wait . . . and wait . . . and wait.

Marriage works the same way.

"For Pete's sake, when are we going to get going?" demands the newlywed husband of his bride as she dawdles at her dressing table.

"I'll be ready when I'm ready," she answers serenely. If you try to hurry me, you'll only make me nervous."

What the new husband doesn't realize is that playing the waiting game is one of the major industry of a woman's life, and that it is a game only a woman can play superbly well. It is her chief weapon against men, her means of keeping them off balance.

If a man marries at 25 and expects at 70, he'll spend 45 years in a marital harness. He can look forward, on the average, to spending at least 10 of those 45 years waiting for his wife to do something.

He'll be standing on a street corner waiting for her to show up. He'll be standing on a street corner waiting for her to show

Rockefeller's Action Leaves Johnson Backers in Very Gleeful Mood

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House politicians undoubtedly flung hats aloft in glee when Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller balked at skimming his own hat into the ring for the Republican presidential nomination.

Although President Johnson hasn't said he'll seek a second full term—and faces a rugged fight for renomination if he does—there are personal as well as political reasons why he would rather see nearly anyone other than Rockefeller representing the GOP in November.

Johnson likes Rockefeller personally. He has been able to get the New Yorker's help on occasion in lining up support among governors for some of the administration's programs.

And the President has no love for Nixon. Through the years he has given the former vice president the back of his hand.

As for practical politics, to the Johnson camp Nixon apparently looked easier to tackle than Rockefeller. The governor would have been a new entry offering a new political banner for rallying Republicans and Democratic malcontents.

That goes despite Rockefeller's untested pulling power in a national election and Nixon's record as the best vote-getter in GOP harness—even though he lost the 1960 presidential election and a 1962 race for governor of California.

To Exhume All Bodies at Prison Farm

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Bob Scott, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's aide on prison affairs, said here Thursday night that "all bodies (at Cummins Prison Farm) will be exhumed this year—before the election."

Scott made the remarks in a speech to the Young Republican Club.

Three human skeletons were unearthed at Cummins Jan. 29. Thomas O. Murton, who was prison superintendent at the time, contended that the bodies were those of murdered inmates.

A Lincoln County Grand Jury, which investigated the unearthing of the three bodies, said the bodies were discovered at the site of an old cemetery.

ning-mate Lyndon B. Johnson barely squeaked by in that presidential contest.

Of course, the President isn't in the clear yet himself, what with Sens. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota unhappy about his Vietnam policy and challenging for the Democratic nomination.

Almost every presidential speech—and there aren't many days without one or more—offers a defense of his position on Vietnam and a call for unity.

The Johnson manner and appearance betray no obvious signs of worry. He has been smoking rather than blasting his rivals so far. So the President evidently has worked up a convincing act or has a genuine confidence that he can nab the brass ring if he wants it at the Democratic convention merry-go-round in August.

But the blasting may begin against Nixon, whose march toward the Republican nomination knocked aside Gov. George Romney of Michigan and, in the view of some Johnson associates, left Rockefeller without a chance.

Actually, Johnson hasn't let up on Nixon in years.

6,000 Sheep Die on Land Adjacent to a Top-Secret Army Base

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Sen. Frank E. Moss has asked the Army for a full report on tests conducted at western Utah's top-secret Dugway proving grounds on the day before 6,000 sheep began dying on adjacent rangeland.

"What we rather suspect is they're using some exotic, even unnamed agents in the area—and this has caused the death of the animals," the Utah Democrat said today in New Orleans. "If this is so, we ought to know about it so there won't be any further injury to the animals," he added.

The Army chemical and biological test area is located about 50 miles southwest of Salt Lake City.

Moss said the Army on March 13 conducted nerve gas tests at Dugway. Sheep were found dead the next day within 35 miles downwind from the tests.

State Agriculture Commissioner David R. Waldron said he and other representatives of state and federal agencies will meet today in emergency session with Gov. Calvin L. Rampton at the state Capitol.

Waldron is seeking help from federal officials in determining whether humans might be susceptible to whatever killed the sheep.

The dead sheep were located at the Hatch ranch on open rangeland where stock has grazed for years.

Waldron said that an unknown poison which affects the central nervous system apparently killed the animals, but it might be two weeks before laboratory tests could pinpoint a cause.

Maddox Files for Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Ode Lee Maddox of Oden, who has served in the House since the 1957 legislative session, filed Thursday for re-election.

Maddox, 55, filed as a Democratic candidate for Pos. 3 in District 20. The district comprises Monticomp and Garland counties.

Says Insurance System Is Outmoded

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Allan W. Horne said Thursday that Arkansas' present automobile insurance system was outmoded because "it depends on whether a person is at fault whether he can recover anything."

Horne said that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller would appoint a committee to study alternatives to the current system. Horne said the committee would study a basic protection plan that would pay a certain amount for medical expenses and loss of time whether or not the insured was at fault.

He said he felt that a person injured in an accident was entitled to some relief if the accident was his own fault.

The semiofficial Egyptian newspaper Al-Ahram declared that the Israeli attack has "buried forever all chances for a peaceful settlement in the Middle East," it promised intensification of Arab guerrilla raids.

The United States rebuked both Israel and Jordan, but American specialists in Middle East affairs expressed guarded hope that the outbreak would prove just another one-day incident. The State Department acknowledged that the Israeli invasion was "in response to terrorist attacks" but said it was "damaging to the hope for a settlement."

The Israeli chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Haim Bar-Lev, insisted that the lightning invasion was not a reprisal for recent raids by Arab guerrillas but "an attack aimed at destroying the bases of El Fatah, the terrorist organization which by Israeli estimate has 1,000 members."

Heavy fire from Jordanian guns slowed down the withdrawal, but Bar-Lev said the whole Israeli force had returned to the west bank of the Jordan River under jet fighter cover by nightfall. Jordan announced that the last Israeli forces withdrew across the river at 8 p.m. local time.

Amman Radio claimed that the invasion cost Israel dearly. It said the Jordanian forces destroyed 45 Israeli tanks and about 50 other armored vehicles and shot down five Israeli planes. It admitted the loss of 10 tanks and 10 other vehicles.

Israel acknowledged the loss of six armored vehicles and one plane but said the pilot parachuted to safety.

Israel Says 150 Killed in Fighting

By ED BLANCHE
Associated Press Writer

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli forces fought their way back home Thursday night claiming that they wiped out four Arab guerrilla bases and killed 150 terrorists in their 15-hour invasion of Jordanian territory on the east side of the Jordan River.

The Israelis said they lost only 30 of their men. The Jordanians claimed 200 of the invaders were killed and said only 20 Jordanians were dead. The Jordanians also claimed they knocked out most of the Israeli tanks and vehicles which crossed the Jordan River.

As the fighting ended, the Arabs and Israelis debated before the U.N. Security Council and sought support in the corridors and lounges at U.N. headquarters in New York. The Arabs were reported optimistic that the council would adopt a resolution condemning Israel and warning that "effective steps" would be taken if the attack was repeated.
